BHS tabletop AG appoints Uwe Kolb to the Board of Management

Selb, December 4th, 2008. BHS tabletop AG, the world market leader for professional porcelain for the hotel and gastronomy industry as well as for large-scale catering based in Selb, has appointed another internal candidate to a leading managerial position. Effective January 1st, 2009, Uwe Kolb will take up a position as deputy Board of Management member with responsibility for the Finance division, in which he is succeeding Thomas Rövekamp who departed at the end of June 2008. The previous deputy Board members Christian Strootmann (Sales division) and Rainer Schwarzmeier (Production) are appointed ordinary Board members with effect from January 1st, 2009.

The Supervisory Board of BHS tabletop AG approved both decisions in its meeting held yesterday.

Since September 1st 2000, Uwe Kolb, 50, has been the Executive Director for Finance and Controlling at BHS tabletop AG. Previously, he worked in the controlling area of the consumer goods industry and was the commercial manager and member of the Board of a medium-sized company.

"During the past few years, Uwe Kolb has achieved some magnificent work and will play a significant part in shaping the further development of the company in his post as deputy Board member," says Hans G. Beckmann, Chairman of the Board of Management of BHS tabletop AG.
